Service to Profession

Course design & Curriculum development

Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation High School Math Pathways Data Science Team , 2023 - present

Invited to join small team to develop course design principles and learning objectives for high school data science courses

UT-Austin Dana Center Statistics Curriculum Authoring Group, 2021

Group of 20 authors writing lessons for an introductory statistics course.

Describe what is included in each lesson.

Invited to join 2-person team to develop projects and corresponding rubrics for introductory statistics.

Link to find the curriculum? Something about how widely it's used?

UT-Austin Dana Center Statistics Curriculum Advisory Group, 2020

Developed course design principles for introductory data courses (?) is this correct?
